Hello! I'm Anuragh

I am a passionate, self-taught Graphic & Motion Designer and Video Editor based in London, dedicated to creating impactful visual experiences. As a graduate from Kingston University, I've honed my skills across a range of design and digital media disciplines, from graphic design and motion graphics to social media content planning. Driven by a collaborative spirit, I enjoy working with like-minded teams to bring ideas to life in ways that engage and inspire. My approach is centered around visual storytelling, aiming to reach wide audiences and convey meaningful messages effectively.
